Belated Western Vote to Save Party.

Assury Park, N. J., Nov. 7.—Confidence and smiles returned at midnight to the grim and frowing party of Democrats who were gathered in the summer White House, as the offices on the top floor of the Asbury Park Trust lev of cheers rising from Broadway Shadow Lawn.

Presumably it was an equally confident family gathering at the other end of a set of private telephone and telegraph wires, where were the President, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. William G. McAdoo and Miss Woodrow Bones.

At midnight when returns from the West were coming in Se retary Tumulty exclaimed: "By heavens, this fight isn't over yet, it's just started," and he rushed to the telephone. He was all smiles when he her candidate had a right to claim tory as yet. The States he claimed at that hour

That the Republican majority will be cut down is evident from the heavy vote cast in the cities for Wilson. Lieut-Gov. W. L. Harding will be the next Governor. He carried bes Moines by 2,500 votes after one of the latter of fights made in the history of any loward Gubernardial campalant. E. T. Meredin, Democratic nomines, cut down the normal Republican majority in Des Moines by 3,500.

The vote for Governor in 1914 was: tepublican, 214,851; Democratic, 185,-20, and Progressive, 7,094.
